WEDNESDAY EVENING, JUNE 14, 1882.

SENATOR GARLAND'S substitute for the Tebbs bill is all right as far as it goes, but it doesn't go far enough. In other words it does not provide, as it should, for the entire not only unjust and offensive, but entirely useless. The youngest officer in the U.S. army who resigned to enter the service of the Confederate States must now be over forty-two years of age, and no such exsecond lieutenant, the highest rank at which his his re-entry could be made. This shows ment and unpleasant memories. That its cotinuance is unjust is apparent to every unprejudiced man, provided he be well informed, for all such men know that up to the commencement of the civil war the cadets at West Point were taught the dochad been inculcated, who acted from princidisgraced by the Government which instilled | could tell. that principle into them. Ex-Confederates who were once officers in the U.S. army are no worse than many, and are much better than some who were not, and every rightthinking man in the Senate will vote to rethat is allowed to remain upon them by Senator Garland's bill.

PARADOXICAL AS it may appear, while some newspapers bring accounts of a famine in Patrick county, Virginia, others, printed nearer the scene of the reported famine, contain notices of a public meeting to be held to-day at Penn's Store, in that county, to take the sense of the voters thereof in re-to take the sense of the voters thereof in re-ate to-day. Drowned. [Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.] SHILOH, King George Co., June 12.-Jesse Barnes, a young colored man, whose parents reside near this place, was drowned in the Rappahannock river, a short distance above Leedstown, on Saturday evening. He was attempting to cross the river in a small, l.aky boat, in company with two other colored men, Edward Jackson and Henry Lomax, and when midway the stream took tright from the rapid filling of the boat and jumped overboard. This act upset the boat and threw his friends out, but being expert swimmers they managed to recover their ii tle craft and reach the shore. Jesse was a worthy young man, and would have been married on the 20th of this month to Miss Fanny Sale, of Washington City.

Well informed and intelligent people, not professional politicians, or office holders or office seekers, from various parts of Virginia, at the Capitol to-day concur in the opinion that Mr. Massey is the strongest man the democrats can support for Congressmove the gratuitous and useless reproach man at large. It now seems to be conceded that Capt. John Wise will receive and will accept the Mahone nomination for that position and as the fight against him must be an agressive one, there is no man in the State more fitted to lead it than the Parson. The opposition the Mahoneites are already making to his nomination is the best evidence of his strength, and of the fear they entertain of his ability to injure them.

The most disgraceful exhibition about the Capitol now is the almost daily appearance holing republican Senators and whispering in their ears. The infamous crime, to avoid impeachment for which he hastily resigned his seat in Grant's cabinet, doesn't seem to have lowered him at all in the estimation of the republican members of the Senate, and he is said to be one of the most successful lobbyists at Washington.

CITY COUNCIL.

A regular semi-monthly meeting of the City Council was held last night. BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

The Board of Aldermen was called to order promptly at 8 o'clock, with all the members present except Messrs. C. C. Smoot and Strauss, the latter being absent on account of sickness.

When the Finance Committee was called Mr. J. B. Smoot stated that the committee, having been engaged in settling with the different Corporation officials, there had been no time to draw up reports on the different matters under consideration, and the committee would have to be excused.

Col. Reid, from the Committee on Light on the petition of citizens of the north western section of the 3d ward for an extension of the gas mains to that locality and the erection of a gas lamp, reported that as the granting of the petition would involve an expense of from $200 to $300, and as few persons could be found in the neighborhood who would take gas, the Committee desired Council to act on the matter.

After an explanation by Col. Reid, in which he stated that while there would be little return for the amount expended, a rge number of tax payers would be benefitted by the erection of a gas lamp in the section named, on his motion the prayer of the petitioners was granted.

a gas lamp on the corner of Gibbon and Pitt streets was also, for same reasons given gas lamp on the corner of Gibbon and above, on motion of Col. Reid, granted.

Mr. Moore said the Mount Vernon Cotton

Factory had been standing idle for about eight years, and he would like to know if there was not something about the factory that could be taxed.

Mr. J. B. Smoot said there was nothing about the factory that could be taxed but real estate, and that was assessed and taxed as other property. [The factory is assessed at $33,000, upon which assessment a tax of $594 is paid to the city.] Col. Reid said a bill had passed this Board exempting capital, &c., employed in manufacturing enterprises from tax for twenty years from July, 1883, but the Common Council had not yet acted on the matter. He thought some inducement ought to be offered to capital, and he hoped the Common Council would pass the bill. A bill granting the Southern Telegraph Company the privilege of erecting poles, upon which to run the wires of the company along certain streets of the city, with one pole on King street, above Union, and providing that the company shall not charge a a bench warrent issued by Joseph F. Bargreater rate for its services than it demands for similar services in other cities, and requiring a bond of $5,000 from the company as a guarantee of its good intentions, was adopted without debate, and The Board, at 9:30, adjourned.

COMMON COUNCIL.

The attendance at the opening of the regular meeting of the Common Council did ot exceed a quorum.

An application of Robert Portner for leave to lay down another railroad siding on St. Asaph street between Wythe and Pendleton occasioned some debate.

Mr. Eichberg urged that the leave be granted at once. There were no houses bevond. Mr. Portner owned both sides of the stree. There was no thoroughfare. He did not however wish members to vote for it if they thought it improper.

Mr. Lambert was very anxious to accommodate Mr. Portner in every way, for he deserved accommodation; but it might be well before the leave was granted to have the matter clearly understood, He thought that Mr. Portner had one siding there now.

Mr. Eichberg said that there was one siding besides the regular track there now; but both sidings would not be occupied at the same time, so there would always be room for passage, but as a matter of fact not one wagon a year passed there except Mr. Portner's own wagons.

The subject was referred to the committee on streets.

Afterwards there was some debate upon proposals to erect a gas pipe on the corner of Alfred and Princess street.

Mr. Rice favored the passage of the resolution and referring to the proposed erection of a gas lamp at the Bridge Pump said joco-"That part of the town is dark enough any how and it would be dangerous to go out there even if there was plenty of light." He referred to a change of front on the part of some members of the committee on light.

Mr. McLean said that he was not present at the last meeting of the Committee on Light. He was not responsible for the action of that committee. He thought, how-ever, that Mr. Rice did not want too much light in his end of the town. (Laughter.) Considerable business was transacted with little debate and the Board adjurned early.

A SUIT TO RECOVER MONEY LOST ON A GAME OF POKER.-Last night Dr. Montreville M. Hedges, a dental surgeon and a sporting man, was arrested at Newburg, N.Y., on nard, justice of the Supreme Court at Poughkeepsie. The complainant, Francis P. Weed charges Hedges and William M. Scott, the latter now dying of consumption in California, with conspiracy to defraud. It is stated that the three played a game of poker in June, each betting $150,000 on a single hand. Weed and Hedges lost. Weed now charges that the hands were put up by Hedges and Scott, they to divide the winnings. Weed had recently received from the estate of his deceased father a fortune estimated at about $500,000. Of the amount lost it is stated that Weed paid the defendants during the year over $100,000, having compromised for $120, 000, and that $15,000 is yet due on an unpaid note. This Weed now desires to avoid paying and has begun attachment proceeding against Hedges and Scott to recover as much as possible of what they have already received. An effort is being made to secure valuable trotting horses owned by Hedges, which are now at the races in the West. The affair causes much excitement, some of the parties being highly connecteed, and there are plenty of rumors of startling developments that may come to light. During the trial to-day Weed swore he lost $450,000 at poker in one hour.

CATTLE MARKETS.

ALEXANDRIA CATTLE MARKET, June 14, 1882. Prices to-day ranged as follows: Cattle-Very best..... Medium or fair quality ... Ordinary thin Steers, Oxen and Cows 4 Cows and Calves 25a$45.

The market was better supplied with all kind of stock this week than for several weeks. Cattle are beginning to arrive in small lots and prices have a downward tendency; most of the offerings however are of only fair quality, but few good ones being among them; most of the offerings, sold readily at quotations. Sheep in fair supply and dull; Lambs are beginning to come in quite freely and prices have fallen fully le per thon last week's prices. Hogs in limited demand, with but few sales, Cows and Calves in fair supply and moderate request, sales being hard to effect except for prime ones. NEW YORK CATTLE MARKET, June 14. - Beeves Dressed Beef sides sold fairly at 12a14c per lb for native Beef, and at 7a11c for poorest to best Texas

Calves.—Veals about steady at 645aS45c per lb. Buttermilk Calves rather dull at 4a5c. Sheep and Lambs.-Market a trifle better at 4a 64c per lb for Sheep, and at 515a714c for Southern Lambs.

Hogs.—None for sale alive. Nominally firmer at $7 37 \( \frac{1}{2} \alpha \$8 37 \( \frac{1}{2} \) per 100 lbs for extremes.

QUEENSTOWN CATTLE MARKET, June 13.— Offering to-day amounted to 210 Cattle, 1509 Sheep and Lambs and 30 Cows and Calves. Market for Cattle opened duli and continued so throughout with sales of best stock at a small decline, while those of fair and ordinary quality sustained a more serious "mark down" week's sales. Several Cattle, Sheep and Lambs, and Cows and Calves remain unsold. Best to choice Cattle 7½38½c; common to good 4a7c; Sheep 3½35c; Lamb 5a6¾c; Cows and Calves $20a$50. We would advise farmers and graziers not to push their half fatted Cattle into the market at the demand for Reaf for continuous and calves the demand for Reaf for continuous and calves are the demand for Reaf for continuous and calves are the demand for Reaf for continuous and calves are the demand for Reaf for continuous and calves are the demand for Reaf for continuous and calves are the demand for Reaf for continuous and calves are the demand for Reaf for continuous and calves are the demand for Reaf for continuous and calves are the demand for Reaf for continuous and calves are the demand for Reaf for continuous and calves are the demand for Reaf for continuous and calves are the ket, as the demand for Beef for some time to comwill be limited, especially for inferior grades.
